

2015 Dallas E&P Forum

“Carbonate Oil Reservoirs, more than meets the eye”

Sponsored by the Society of Independent Professional Earth Scientists (SIPES), the Dallas Geological Society (DGS), and the SMU Cox Maguire Energy Institute

Thursday, November 5th, 2015, Dallas, Texas

In the Mack Ballroom, Umphrey Lee Building, Southern Methodist University,
Dallas, Texas, 75205

PLANNED PROGRAM: 8:00 AM Check-in

- Wettability and Impact on Recovery
 - Carbonate Petrophysics; Sid Williams, Senior Petrophysicist - PSI, Houston TX
 - Feature Lunch Speaker; Dr. Anas Alhajji, Chief Economist-Natural Gas Partners, Irving TX
 - Diagenetic Evolution of Porosity in Carbonates; Arthur Saller, AAPG Distinguished Lecturer 2013
 - Integrated Carbonate Oil Field Study
 - Completion Practices or other
- CEU credit available*

Limited Seating Available, Pre-registration Only

$200 per person, includes valet parking and networking luncheon.

Register <http://dgs.org/events/>

2015 Dallas E&P Forum

“Carbonate Oil Reservoirs, more than meets the eye”

Thursday, November 5th, 2015, Dallas, Texas

In the Mack Ballroom, Umphrey Lee Building, Southern Methodist University,
Dallas, Texas, 75205

Limited Sponsorships Available for the Symposium:

Platinum: $2,000

- Admission for four people
- Event recognition
- Prominent program advertisement

Gold: $1,000

- Admission for two people
- Event recognition
- Prominent program advertisement

Silver: $500

- Admission for one person
- Event recognition
- Program advertisement

Please contact:

Donald P. Muth, Chairman
don.muth@denbury.com

SMU  COX
MAGUIRE ENERGY INSTITUTE